Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-3, and 5-11 are allowed.

Claim 1 is independent claim.

As to claim 1, the reasons for allowance based on the applicant's statement (i.e., Remarks) filed on 08/28/06 from pages 4-6. Furthermore, with including the updated search, there are some closest prior art, such as Howard (US Patent No. 6,823,526 B2), and Carney et al. (US Patent No. 7,100,169 B2), which is recorded on the Examiner's Remark, fails to anticipate or render the amended limitations from independent claims obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Examiner's Remark

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:

Howard (US Patent No. 6,823,526 B2) discloses Specifically, to operate the optional envelope feeder of the above illustration, the installer must first install the printer driver in the host computer operating system. Once installed, a user must interface with a configuration settings component provided by the printer driver and a configuration registry of the host computer operating system. The user must then alter the driver and host configurations to include the envelope feeder as the desired feature to ensure proper activation of the external printer.

Carney et al. (US Patent No. 7,100,169 B2) discloses user activation of printing by selection of one of the graphical mechanisms causes the application to call a printer dialog program that, in turn, displays a print dialog box GUI in a manner known in the art. the application or print dialog program could send the event notification message to every printer and printer server having a printer driver installed on the computer
